

H & S HOTEL PRESENTS

JUST NORTH OF OLCOTT

This year's movie smash hit

Custer Beaton has done it again

FUTURE FILMS:

Sharlene Shaplin and

Barry Johnmore

In

Take the Money and Run

Featuring Lillian Gish

Directed by Custer Beaton

Murder on the

Aragain Trail

Written by Lewis Sinclair

Music by Lord Bellington

Casting call TBA

October, 1929

H & S HOTELS PRESENT
OSCAR GALA DINNER

TONIGHT'S EVENT

Highlights by Zelda Zopler

Fitzgerald Scott was seen holding hands with Sharlene Shaplin and Gillian Lish, not at the same time.

Lewis Sinclair didn't accept the Oscar in person. Fitzgerald Scott went on stage so he thinks he gets to keep it.

Fitzgerald Scott was demanding a bonus from Custer Beaton and Lewis Sinclair.

Hilton Statler suggested Fitzgerald Scott take a nap before the party at the hotel. He was trying to find nice ways to say "You're Drunk."

Lord Bellington told Fitzgerald Scott to keep his hands off Gillian.

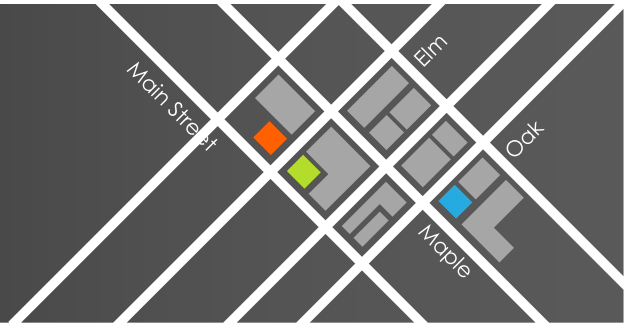

Rudy Valentine cringed when it was suggested she serenade Fitzgerald Scott.

Sharlene Shaplin was gloating to Gillian Lish about winning the Oscar. She made Gillian cry when she reminded her that Fitzgerald campaigned for her.

The plan was to leave the awards ceremony, go to the hotel and share a celebratory drink. Then the dinner party would begin.

WHO'S WHO

- Palace Theatre
- Rivera Theatre
- H&S Hotel

Our Oscar Nominees

JUST NORTH OF OLCOTT

The movie everyone loved

CUSTER BEATON

Director

JOHN BARRYMORE

How many of his movies have you seen?

GILLIAN LISH

The actress with the bright future

People to know

HILTON STATLER

Your host for the evening

FITZGERALD SCOTT

Author of the Book

LEWIS SINCLAIR

Screenwriter, Lyricist, Playwright

LORD BELLINGTON

Band Leader, Composer

ZELDA ZOPPLER

Newspaper Reporter

SHARLENE SHAPLIN

Actress in that Other Film

RUDY VALENTINE

Singer with the band

OSCAR

As himself

